

Allied Youth of Newfoundland and Labrador
Leadership Training Weekend 2019

Dear Parents / Guardians & AY Members,

The purpose of this letter is to inform the newly elected AY Post Presidents and delegates about the upcoming Leadership Training Weekend 2019 being hosted at the Capital Hotel, St. John's during the weekend of September 13th – 15th, 2019.

This weekend is provided for all Post Presidents, one Post Executive Member selected by the post, and for one Post Advisor per post. There is no cost this year for delegates to attend this weekend and it is also MANDATORY for Post Presidents to attend. Posts are responsible for covering the cost of their travel and own meals on route to and from the event. Meals and accommodations are provided at no cost during the event. Post Advisor accommodations are not provided and thus Post Advisors are responsible for making their own accommodation arrangements. During the weekend, attendees will receive training in Successfully Leading a Post, Organizing, Real Life Skills Teamwork, Social Media, Communications and more. In addition, they will have the opportunity to meet other new AY leaders from across the province!

It is important to note the following information:

- Registration Forms are attached to this letter. Please complete all forms and submit forms to your Post Advisor ASAP. All forms must be submitted to the address provided below by June 30th, 2019. If forms are not received by deadlines, posts will be subject to a late registration fee of $25.
- The Post President is responsible for insuring the selection of one additional Post Executive to accompany them. The Post President in conjunction with their Post Advisor must arrange travel. Please note that AY will not be covering travel expenses to or from the event. Post Presidents or Advisors must email contact@alliedyouth.ca to notify us of your arranged travel by September 1st, 2019.
- Delegates should be prepared to arrive in St. John's by 5:00 p.m. on September 13th, 2019.
- Departure will be 10 a.m. on September 15th, 2019.
- Posts must notify us which Post Executive and Post Advisor will be attending to the above email.

This event is considered mandatory for the Post President and as such you must notify us immediately if you are unable to attend in writing. Substitutes may be considered but are not guaranteed.

We expect all delegates to come prepared to be strong representatives of their posts and be open to learn about the AY program. Most importantly, members should be ready to have fun and to meet other executive members from across the province.
